What is travel training?

Travel training helps those who want to gain confidence using public transport so that they can travel independently.

Everyone is different and your travel trainer will tailor your training to your abilities.

Who can benefit from travel training?

- Older people who no longer drive or drive limited distances
- People with a disability or limited mobility
- Young people with a disability who need to catch public transport to school, TAFE, university, work or day programs
- Your family members and friends who are isolated due to lack of confidence using public transport

Travel training may be able to help!!!!!!!

Group Information Sessions

Your group can book a session on purchasing, using & topping up your Opal card.

We can provide information to your group on a range of topics relating to using public transport.

Individual Support

Is tailored to your needs and can include:

- How to plan your trip using timetables and / or apps
- A trainer going with you on a selected journey
- What to do if things don't go to plan
- Reviewing your journey
